The high winds preceding the storm did considerable damage. In a PRAISES GOOD SHOTS few minutes after the downpour began the streets were quickly converted into watersheds.

As a result of the storm, trees and going down like twigs. Most of the elect tric, telephone, and telegraph wires in the city were prostrated. Traffic on the Mount Vernon end of the Washington, Alexandria and Mount Vernon Electric Railway was tied up for some time, owing to the wires being down. In many houses windows were demolished and worst storm that Alexandria has had in recent years.

As a result of the storm, a portion of the city was to-night in total darkness, many of the electric lights being burned For several hours it was dangerous on the streets, owing to crossed electric and telephone wires being down on out and made temporary repairs.

Owing to the intensity of the heat, those who did not leave the city for river resorts remained indoors until the storm had subsided this evening. According to the report at police headquarters, not single violation of the Sunday closing laws was reported.

Robert H. Harris, colored, is locked up at police headquarters on a charge of carrying concealed weapons. Harris was arrested shortly after midnight last night by Policemen Henderson and Sampson at King and Payne streets. He was acting in a rather suspicious manner when taken in custody.
